

Group Information

Hellbrunn Palace and the world-famous trick fountains are unique and have hardly been changed in the almost 400 years since their construction. You will experience the same fun among the trick fountains as enjoyed by the Salzburg Archbishop Markus Sittikus and his guests when they were constructed in 1615.

Water plays a central role and ensures sufficient movement among the visitors as well as among the numerous original automatic water machines. The tour takes you through a magical world of spring fountains, antique sculptures, mysterious grottos and often unpredictable water fountains. Playful details make a stay enjoyable and at the same time unusual.

Hellbrunn is especially coach friendly. Coach parking is free of charge when the trick fountains are visited. There are sufficient coach parking spaces available.

The trick fountains and the Palace are open from the 1st of April to the 1st November 2010, daily from 9am. Open every day.
